Management Discussion of Fund Performance

Results of Operations

For the six-month period ended June 30, 2020, the NBI Municipal Bond Plus Private Portfolio's Advisor Series units returned 3.88% compared to 4.04% for the Fund's benchmark, the FTSE Canada Short Term Bond Index (CAD). Unlike the benchmark, the Fund's performance is calculated after fees and expenses. Please see the Past Performance section for the returns of all of the Fund's series, which may vary mainly because of fees and expenses.

The Fund's net asset value dropped by 14.89% over the period, from $32.90 million as at December 31, 2019 to $28.00 million as at June 30, 2020.

The decline stemmed mainly from net redemptions by unitholders of the Fund.

Bond markets were strongly impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic. The spread of the virus and the impact of the response measures (including social distancing) on economic activity is very severe and a global recession is likely in the cards for 2020. Specific to Canada, the sharp drop in oil prices has also compounded the impact on the economy.

The six-month period ended with 30-year Canada bonds yielding 0.991%, down 77 basis points (bps) while in the U.S., 30-year yields ended down 98 bps to 1.411%. Government bond yields swung wildly as investors sought to assess the economic fallout stemming from the coronavirus, the bond supply implications of the massive fiscal response, and assertive central bank measures aimed at restoring liquidity and avoiding a credit crunch.

Corporate credit spreads blew out in March as the economic shutdown threatened corporate health and liquidity seized up in the tumultuous market environment. Over the second quarter, those spreads began to narrow as quantitative easing programs took effect and market conditions improved. Bonds with higher duration performed better – no large surprise as interest rates were lowered by central banks.

In Canada, the best performing sectors were Telecommunications and Infrastructure while Real Estate and Securitization trailed behind. Provincial bonds outperformed corporate, municipal and federal bonds over the period.

Under these circumstances, the Fund underperformed the benchmark. The Fund's absolute return was mostly a function of lower yields. While 5-year rates finished the quarter lower by more than 100 basis points, the spread widening of credit products held in the Fund did detract value over the benchmark. In the second quarter, the Fund almost gained back what it had lost in the first quarter over its benchmark due to the sharp retracement in spreads; this spread tightening of credit products held in the Fund did generate value over the benchmark.

Recent Developments

Late in the first quarter, as spreads widened, the portfolio manager slowly increased municipal exposure to benefit from the spread widening. The portfolio manager continued towards this strategy in the second quarter, selling products under 1-2 years to increase duration in the 3-years bucket and above. While the situation remains uncertain and the full Covid-19 effect has yet to be assessed, the portfolio manager remains constructive on municipal spreads at these elevated levels.

While volatility still persists, liquidity has much improved since March. In this context, the portfolio manager is prudently increasing the municipal weight and is carefully assessing the Fund's corporate holdings. In light of the first quarter corporate results, the portfolio manager eliminated the holdings of RioCan REIT as he thought he was not being compensated enough for the uncertainty pertaining to mall/retail exposure it had in its real-estate portfolio.

The portfolio manager decreased the position in provincials while adding to the municipal and corporate position. This somewhat upped duration and decreased the yield to maturity. The Fund still has a higher yield and a lower duration compared to the benchmark.

COVID-19 will remain front and centre for financial markets. Governments have and will continue to respond with drastic measures that are necessary to bridge the gap until the economy can fully re-open. The portfolio manager is confident that these decisions will eventually work, but the duration and severity of the impact on economic growth remains uncertain especially in certain sectors. Second quarter growth will be extremely weak, but the portfolio manager is expecting activity to resume in the third quarter of 2020, albeit at a subdued pace.

The portfolio manager expects Canada rates to be kept low for a long period of time, but volatility will present tradeable opportunities. Credit will continue to perform well especially with government yields anchored. However, the portfolio manager does not expect a straight-line recovery and given credit has performed well, he will continue to take profits in certain sectors. However, at the same time if spreads widened, he would look to increase exposure. While municipal spreads reflect a decent amount of uncertainty, the portfolio manager remains cautious of a sudden spread widening when supply increases in the fall, where he thinks a buying opportunity could arise.

On April 30, 2020, the Fund's independent review committee (the "IRC") was reduced to three members when Jacques Valotaire and Jean-François Bernier resigned as IRC members.

The Manager may, from time to time and at its sole discretion, decide to absorb a portion of a series' management fees, administration fees or Fund costs.

As described under the heading Management Fees, the Fund pays annual management fees to NBII as consideration for its services.

The Manager has implemented policies and procedures to make sure that the conditions applicable to each of the above transactions are met. The applicable standing instructions require that these transactions be carried out in accordance with NBII policies, which specify, in particular, that investment decisions pertaining to these related party transactions must be made free from any influence by an entity related to NBII and without taking into account any consideration relevant to an entity related to NBII. Furthermore, the investment decisions must represent the business judgment of the securities advisor, uninfluenced by considerations other than the best interest of the Fund and must achieve a fair and reasonable result for the Fund.

Registered Plan Trust Services

NBT receives a fixed amount per registered account for services provided as trustee for registered plans.

Administrative and Operating Services

The provision of certain services was delegated by the Fund Manager, NBII, to National Bank Trust Inc. ("NBT"), a wholly-owned indirect subsidiary of the Bank. These include accounting, reporting and portfolio valuation services. The fees incurred for these services are paid to NBT by the Fund manager.

Management Fees

The Fund pays annual management fees to the Fund manager for its management services. The fees are calculated based on a percentage of the Fund's daily net asset value before applicable taxes and are paid on a monthly basis. A portion of the management fees paid by the Fund covers maximum annual trailer fees and sales commissions paid to brokers. The remainder of the management fees primarily covers investment management and general administration services. The breakdown of major services provided in consideration of the management fees, expressed as an approximate percentage of the management fees is as follows:

| Series | Management Fees | Distribution | Others [†] |
|----------------|-----------------|--------------|---------------------|
| Advisor Series | | | |
| Front-end load | 0.93% | 53.76% | 46.24% |
| Series F | 0.45% | — | 100.00% |

^(†) Includes all costs related to management, investment advisory services, general administration and profit.

Past Performance

The performance of each series of the Fund is presented below and calculated as at December 31 of each year. It assumes that all distributions made in the periods shown were reinvested in additional securities and does not take into account sales, redemption charges, distributions, or optional charges that would have reduced returns. Past performance of a series of a Fund does not necessarily indicate how it will perform in the future.

Annual Returns

The bar charts indicate the performance for each the Fund's series in existence greater than one year during the years shown, and illustrate how the performance has changed from year to year. They show, in percentage terms, how much an investment made on January 1 (or made commencing from the start of the series) would have grown or decreased by December 31 of that year, or by June 30, as applicable.

⁽⁴⁾ This information is derived from the Fund's Annual Audited Financial Statements and Interim Unaudited Financial Statements. The net assets per unit presented in the financial statements might differ from the net asset value calculated for fund pricing purposes. The differences are explained in the notes to the financial statements.

⁽²⁾ Net assets and distributions are based on the actual number of units outstanding at the relevant time. The increase or decrease from operations is based on the average number of units outstanding over the accounting period.

⁽⁷⁾ The trading expense ratio represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net asset value during the accounting period. The trading expense ratio includes, if necessary, the trading expenses from its underlying funds, as described in Article 15.2 of Regulation 81-106.
