Management Discussion of Fund Performance

Investment Objective and Strategies

The NBI U.S. High Conviction Equity Private Portfolio's investment objective is to provide long-term capital growth. The Fund invests directly, or through investments in securities of other mutual funds, in a portfolio consisting primarily of common shares of U.S. companies selected using a high conviction investment approach.

The portfolio manager seeks undervalued shares in every sector, and also considers the quality and liquidity of the securities. The portfolio manager relies on its convictions to select securities. In applying this high conviction investment approach, the industry and geographic allocation and the weighting of each security in the Portfolio will generally differ significantly from the allocation and weighting in the Fund's reference index.

Risks

The global investment risk of the Fund remains as described in the simplified prospectus or any amendments thereto and Fund Facts.

Results of Operations

For the twelve-month period ended December 31, 2022, the NBI U.S. High Conviction Equity Private Portfolio's Advisor Series units returned -10.54% compared to -12.16% for the Fund's benchmark, the S&P 500 Index (CAD). Unlike the benchmark, the Fund's performance is calculated after fees and expenses. Please see the Past Performance section for the returns of all of the Fund's series, which may vary mainly because of fees and expenses.

Certain series of the Fund, as applicable, may make distributions at a rate determined by the manager. This rate may change from time to time. If the aggregate amount of distributions in such series exceeds the portion of net income and net realized capital gains allocated to such series, the excess will constitute a return of capital. The manager does not believe that the return of capital distributions made by such series of the Fund have a meaningful impact on the Fund's ability to implement its investment strategy or to fulfill its investment objective.

The Fund's net asset value dropped by 11.17% over the period, from $3.260 billion as at December 31, 2021 to $2.896 billion as at December 31, 2022. The decline stemmed mainly from a rebalancing of the managed solutions offered by National Bank and market fluctuations.

Financial markets experienced some notable volatility in 2022 as decades-high inflation prompted an unwavering tightening campaign from major central banks and threatened to bring the global economy to a standstill. Both stocks and bonds posted negative, double-digit losses for the year, something not seen in the past 50 years.

Global equity markets endured their worst annual performance since the global financial crisis. Valuations were crushed around the globe as central banks embarked on the most aggressive tightening campaign in decades, which stoked recession risks and weighed on risky assets. The MSCI All Country World tumbled -19.8% in 2022. Regionally, losses were widespread across the globe. The S&P 500 fell -19.4%, the MSCI EAFE lost -16.8%, and the MSCI Emerging Markets index tumbled -22.4%, led by China (-23.6%) given property sector woes and strict Covid lockdowns. Meanwhile, the S&P/TSX outperformed its global peers (-8.7%) given solid performance in the heavyweight commodities space that helped to offset broad based weakness elsewhere.

Indeed, sector compositions largely explained the relative performance of major regional benchmarks last year. The energy sector was by far the strongest performing sector in 2022 and even managed to generate positive, double-digit returns versus negative returns for most other sectors. Elsewhere, defensive-oriented sectors such as consumer staples, gold, and utilities outperformed their cyclical peers (consumer discretionary, financials, technology, and communication services) as risk aversion took hold. Some of these latter sectors are more sensitive to rising interest rates, with global communication services (dominated by Alphabet, Meta, and Tencent), consumer discretionary (Amazon), and "traditional" information technology suffering relatively larger losses as soaring interest rates weighed on the valuations of these longer-duration tech sectors.

Under these circumstances, the Fund outperformed its benchmark. The relative outperformance was mainly driven by stock selection in the Consumer Discretionary and Information Technology sectors. Partially offsetting these positives was security selection in the Industrials and Financials Sectors sector as well as lack of exposure to the outperforming Energy sector.

Among the top contributors to the performance were AutoZone and UnitedHealth Group. Conversely, among the bottom detractors were Alphabet and Microsoft.

Recent Developments

During the period, the portfolio manager initiated a position in Adobe and exited positions in US Bancorp and Ecolab.

Furthermore, throughout the period the portfolio manager trimmed positions in PepsiCo, United Health Group, Autozone and Colgate Palmolive, while adding to positions in CME Group, Microsoft and Lowe's.

As we enter 2023, the portfolio manager remains underweight Information Technology, Energy and Communication Services as he continues to find more attractive investment opportunities in other sectors, including Consumer Discretionary, Health Care and Industrials.

The portfolio manager remains confident that his bottom-up, original, fundamental research, with a focus on very high-quality companies, will continue to provide steady returns over the long term, regardless of the macro environment. The Fund's investment horizon is best measured in years or decades (not months or quarters). The focus continues to be on identifying what are believed to be high quality companies with sustainable competitive advantages and operating in industries with high barriers to entry.

On or about February 1st, 2022, Fiera Capital Corporation retained the services of StonePine Asset Management inc., a firm controlled and led by Nadim Rizk, to delegate its portfolio management functions for the Fund. Fiera Capital Corporation is responsible for the investment advice given by StonePine Asset Management inc.

On April 30, 2022, the Fund's independent review committee (the "IRC") was reduced to three members when Robert Martin resigned as IRC member. On May 1, 2022, the Fund's IRC was increased to four members when Line Deslandes was appointed as IRC member. However, on September 30, 2022, the Fund's IRC was reduced to three members when Line Deslandes resigned as IRC member.

It assumes that all distributions made in the periods shown were reinvested in additional securities and does not take into account sales, redemption charges, distributions, or optional charges that would have reduced returns. Past performance of a series of a Fund does not necessarily indicate how it will perform in the future.

⁽⁶⁾ Net assets and distributions are based on the actual number of units outstanding at the relevant time. The increase or decrease from operations is based on the average number of units outstanding over the accounting period.

⁽⁷⁾ Distributions were paid in cash or reinvested in additional units of the Fund, or both.

^(a) The net assets are calculated in accordance with IFRS.
