Management Discussion of Fund Performance

Investment Objective and Strategies

The NBI Corporate Bond Fund's investment objective is to ensure long-term capital growth and to generate high income. The Fund invests directly, or through investments in securities of other mutual funds, in a portfolio comprised mainly of debt securities of Canadian and U.S. companies.

The portfolio manager carefully analyzes the credit standing of every security and evaluates risk, relative return and the economic situation when confirming the selection and relative weighting of each holding in the portfolio. This is carried out to identify bonds with attractive return potential. The portfolio manager also takes economic considerations and their impact on interest rates into account. Shorter or longer term issues are favoured, depending on whether interest rates are expected to rise or fall. The Fund may invest approximately 25% of its assets in foreign debt securities.

Risks

The global investment risk of the Fund remains as described in the simplified prospectus or any amendments thereto and Fund Facts.

Results of Operations

For the twelve-month period ended December 31, 2020, the NBI Corporate Bond Fund's Investor Series units returned 6.92% compared to 8.74% for the Fund's benchmark, the FTSE Canada Corporate Bond Index (CAD). Unlike the benchmark, the Fund's performance is calculated after fees and expenses. Please see the Past Performance section for the returns of all of the Fund's series, which may vary mainly because of fees and expenses.

The Fund's net asset value rose by 9.9% over the period, from $1.097 billion as at December 31, 2019 to $1.205 billion as at December 31, 2020.

Bond markets were certainly impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic but performed well amid significant monetary easing. Corporate credit spreads relative to government bonds blew out in March, as the economic shutdown threatened corporate health and liquidity seized up in the tumultuous market environment. However, they returned relatively rapidly near pre-pandemic levels, as quantitative easing programs helped support credit markets and market sentiment improved.

These developments caused the 10-year Canada bond yield to drop by 100 bps to 0.68% and the yield curve (short-term bond yields vs their long-term peers) to steepen, allowing the FTSE Canada Universe Bond Index to generate a return of 8.68% for 2020. Municipal and provincial bonds for their part, outperformed corporate and federal bonds, yielding 10.13% and 9.86% respectively, compared to 8.74% and 7.28% for the other two asset classes. However, the big winners for the period were long-term issues which outperformed those with shorter maturities.

Among corporate bonds, BBB-rated issuers also stood out higher rated issuers. On a sector basis, Infrastructure and Communications outperformed other sectors, gaining 10.44% and 10.49% respectively, while securitized securities and financial sector-related securities lagged behind with 6.53% and 6.91%.

Early in the period, the portfolio manager reduced the 7-8-years bank's exposure and reallocated in provincials as the spreads between these two asset classes were tight, which proved to be a positive contributor. He progressively increased the bank's exposure through new issues and secondary trading in the 3-year and 5-year terms afterwards.

During the year, he lowered the Fund's allocation to AA and AAA-rated issuers, to increase exposure to As. Additionally, he raised the weighting of Infrastructure and Energy sectors at the expense of Industrial and Real Estate.

Under these circumstances, the Fund managed to post a positive return helped by the falling rate environment but still lagged its benchmark for the period. Security selection overall and the overweight allocation in Energy names were profitable. Conversely, the underweight exposure to Communication Services and Infrastructure sectors detracted some value despite strong selection, as these sectors outperformed the corporate bond universe during the period.

Recent Developments

Covid-19 will continue to be the focus for financial markets. Virus cases have been spiking, economies are temporarily shutting down and growth will be hit hard in the near term, but vaccinations are underway, governments will continue to provide support, countries will eventually re-open and growth will pick up significantly. Central banks will keep short rates anchored but expectations for a stronger economy and the corresponding rise in inflation expectations will put some pressure on the long end of the curve. In this context, the portfolio manager has positioned the Fund to benefit from both higher yields and a steeper curve. In general, he expects credit to perform well with low government yields, supportive central banks and an improving economy. However, he has and will continue to take profits on credits that he deems expensive and focus on issuers where spreads are still trading above pre-COVID levels. In addition, credit curves have become steep presenting possible extension opportunities. To start the year 2021, the portfolio has a shorter duration than its benchmark and an overweight exposure to Real Estate bonds and a slight underweight in Communication and Infrastructure sectors.

On April 30, 2020, the Fund's independent review committee (the "IRC") was reduced to three members when Jacques Valotaire and Jean-François Bernier resigned as IRC members. On July 1, 2020, the Fund's IRC was increased to four members when Marie Desroches was appointed as IRC member.

The administration fees are equal to a specified percentage of the net asset value of each series of the Fund, calculated and paid in the same manner as the Fund's management fees. The variable operating expenses payable by the Manager include, but are not limited to: transfer agency and recordkeeping costs; custodial costs; accounting and valuation fees; audit fees and legal fees; costs of preparing and distributing financial reports, simplified prospectuses, annual information forms, Fund Facts, continuous disclosure material and other securityholder communications; and costs of trustee services relating to registered tax plans, as applicable.

The Manager may, from time to time and at its sole discretion, decide to absorb a portion of a series' management fees, administration fees or Fund costs.

As described under the heading Management Fees, the Fund pays annual management fees to NBII as consideration for its services.

The Manager has implemented policies and procedures to make sure that the conditions applicable to each of the above transactions are met. The applicable standing instructions require that these transactions be carried out in accordance with NBII policies, which specify, in particular, that investment decisions pertaining to these related party transactions must be made free from any influence by an entity related to NBII and without taking into account any consideration relevant to an entity related to NBII. Furthermore, the investment decisions must represent the business judgment of the securities advisor, uninfluenced by considerations other than the best interest of the Fund and must achieve a fair and reasonable result for the Fund.

Registered Plan Trust Services

NTC receives a fixed amount per registered account for services provided as trustee for registered plans.

Administrative and Operating Services

The provision of certain services was delegated by the Fund Manager, NBII, to National Bank Trust Inc. ("NBT"), a wholly-owned indirect subsidiary of the Bank. These include accounting, reporting and portfolio valuation services. The fees incurred for these services are paid to NBT by the Fund manager.

The fees are calculated based on a percentage of the Fund's daily net asset value before applicable taxes and are paid on a monthly basis. A portion of the management fees paid by the Fund covers maximum annual trailer fees and sales commissions paid to brokers. The remainder of the management fees primarily covers investment management and general administration services. The breakdown of major services provided in consideration of the management fees, expressed as an approximate percentage of the management fees is as follows:

The performance of each series of the Fund is presented below and calculated as at December 31 of each year. It assumes that all distributions made in the periods shown were reinvested in additional securities and does not take into account sales, redemption charges, distributions, or optional charges that would have reduced returns. Past performance of a series of a Fund does not necessarily indicate how it will perform in the future.

Annual Returns

The bar charts indicate the performance for each the Fund's series in existence greater than one year during the years shown, and illustrate how the performance has changed from year to year. They show, in percentage terms, how much an investment made on January 1 (or made commencing from the start of the series) would have grown or decreased by December 31 of that year, or by June 30, as applicable.

⁽²⁾ Net assets and distributions are based on the actual number of units outstanding at the relevant time. The increase or decrease from operations is based on the average number of units outstanding over the accounting period.
