Management Discussion of Fund Performance

Investment Objective and Strategies

The NBI Global Equity Fund's investment objective is to achieve long-term capital growth. It builds a diversified portfolio of common and preferred shares listed on recognized stock exchanges.

The portfolio manager invests up to all of its net assets in mutual funds and exchange traded funds ("ETFs"). The portfolio may also invest in other mutual funds managed by third parties (ETFs and other types of mutual funds are collectively referred to as "Underlying Funds"). The portfolio manager applies a tactical allocation valuation process in which asset allocation and the choice of Underlying Funds are subject to frequent changes depending on economic and market conditions. When the target asset allocation and the choice of Underlying Funds are modified, the fund are generally rebalanced based on the new selection.

Risks

The Fund's risk level was modified from "low to medium" to "medium" during the year. This change aims to more accurately reflect the Fund's actual risk level.

Results of Operations

For the twelve-month period ended December 31, 2022, the NBI Global Equity Fund's Investor Series units returned -13.93% compared to -12.19% for the Fund's benchmark, the MSCI World Index (CAD). Unlike the benchmark, the Fund's return is calculated after fees and expenses. Please see the Past Performance section for the returns of all of the Fund's series, which may vary mainly because of fees and expenses.

Certain series of the Fund, as applicable, may make distributions at a rate determined by the manager. This rate may change from time to time. If the aggregate amount of distributions in such series exceeds the portion of net income and net realized capital gains allocated to such series, the excess will constitute a return of capital. The manager does not believe that the return of capital distributions made by such series of the Fund have a meaningful impact on the Fund's ability to implement its investment strategy or to fulfill its investment objective.

The Fund's net asset value dropped by 21.19% over the period, from $2.145 billion as at December 31, 2021 to $1.690 billion as at December 31, 2022. The decline stemmed mainly from withdrawals from the Fund by other NBI Funds and market fluctuations.

Financial markets experienced some notable volatility in 2022 as decades-high inflation prompted an unwavering tightening campaign from major central banks and threatened to bring the global economy to a standstill. Both stocks and bonds posted negative, double-digit losses for the year, something not seen in the past 50 years.

Global equity markets endured their worst annual performance since the global financial crisis. Valuations were crushed around the globe as central banks embarked on the most aggressive tightening campaign in decades, which stoked recession risks and weighed on risky assets. The MSCI All Country World tumbled -19.8% in 2022. Regionally, losses were widespread across the globe. The S&P 500 fell -19.4%, the MSCI EAFE lost -16.8%, and the MSCI Emerging Markets index tumbled -22.4%, led by China (-23.6%) given property sector woes and strict Covid lockdowns. Meanwhile, the S&P/TSX outperformed its global peers (-8.7%) given solid performance in the heavyweight commodities space that helped to offset broad based weakness elsewhere.

Indeed, sector compositions largely explained the relative performance of major regional benchmarks last year. The energy sector was by far the strongest performing sector in 2022 and even managed to generate positive, double-digit returns versus negative returns for most other sectors. Elsewhere, defensive-oriented sectors such as consumer staples, gold, and utilities outperformed their cyclical peers (consumer discretionary, financials, technology, and communication services) as risk aversion took hold. Some of these latter sectors are more sensitive to rising interest rates, with global communication services (dominated by Alphabet, Meta, and Tencent), consumer discretionary (Amazon), and "traditional" information technology suffering relatively larger losses as soaring interest rates weighed on the valuations of these longer-duration tech sectors.

Under these circumstances, the Fund underperformed its benchmark.

Our performance was mainly driven by our stock selection in the Consumer Discretionary and Information Technology sectors. Partially offsetting these positives was our security selection in the Industrials and Financials sectors as well as lack of exposure to the outperforming Energy sector.

Among the top contributors to performance were AutoZone and Johnson & Johnson. Conversely, the fund suffered due to Alphabet and Taiwan Semiconductor.

AutoZone's stock outperformed primarily driven by the impressive acceleration of the company's commercial business, posting same-store sales growth far exceeding expectations, while its retail segment's Same Store Sales have climbed back into positive territory, following exceptional strength in recent pandemic years. The leading retailer and distributor of automotive replacement parts and accessories remains committed to its mega-hub strategy, having significantly increased its mega-hub expansion targets. The company has also demonstrated an ability to price in inflationary pressures.

Johnson & Johnson stock outperformed throughout the period, as the pharmaceutical giant experienced solid topline growth, due to favourable macroeconomic conditions & strong pricing strategies. The Medical Devices division continued to show a strong broad-based recovery with the easing of Covid-related restrictions. While the company experienced moderate margin contractions due to FX in their pharmaceutical segment and commodity inflation, the company is expected to offset these headwinds through an increase in R&D expenditures. Moreover, the bulk of the company's key drugs continue to demonstrate attractive growth. The thesis remains unchanged, as the company is expected to perform well regardless of global economic conditions.

Alphabet's stock underperformed as the company reported results that came in below expectations and negatively revised earnings. The US-based multinational tech giant continues to be faced with short term macro challenges and FX headwinds. The company remains committed to spending on innovation throughout the market cycle, while at the same time have not meaningfully slowed down hirings, staying focused on the business long-term, despite the impact being negative on margins short term.

Taiwan Semiconductor underperformed alongside its peers due to the challenging macroeconomic environment and looming correction in the semiconductor industry. The company, however, reported strong results with the underlying business continuing to perform very well, driven by their technology leadership, manufacturing capabilities, and overall strong execution.

Recent Developments

During the period, we did not exit or initiate any new positions. We did, however, trim our positions in Pepsico, Autozone, Moody's and Sherwin Williams, while adding to our positions in Microsoft, LVMH and Geberit.

There were no changes to our long-term high-quality bottom-up investment approach.

Our sector and regional weights are driven by bottom-up stock selection. As we enter the first quarter of 2023, we remain underweight Asia Pacific Ex Japan, Japan and the United States as we continue to find more attractive opportunities in other parts of the world, such as the United Kingdom and Emerging Markets. We are currently overweight Consumer Discretionary, Consumer Staples and Industrials while underweight Real Estate, Energy, and Utilities.

Our investment horizon is best measured in years, conceivably decades, not months or quarters. Our focus continues to be on identifying what we believe to be high-quality companies with sustainable competitive advantages, operating in industries with high barriers to entry, contributing to durable pricing power.

On or about February 1st, 2022, Fiera Capital Corporation retained the services of StonePine Asset Management Inc., a firm controlled and led by Nadim Rizk, to delegate its portfolio management functions for the Fund. Fiera Capital Corporation is responsible for the investment advice given by StonePine Asset Management Inc.

On April 30, 2022, the Fund's independent review committee (the "IRC") was reduced to three members when Robert Martin resigned as IRC member. On May 1, 2022, the Fund's IRC was increased to four members when Line Deslandes was appointed as IRC member. However, on September 30, 2022, the Fund's IRC was reduced to three members when Line Deslandes resigned as IRC member.

Investors who purchased units under these sales charge options will continue to be subject to the redemption fee schedules under which they were purchased.

On June 17, 2022, National Bank Trust Inc. replaced Fiera Capital Corporation as portfolio manager of the fund, the latter which became the portfolio sub-advisor.

Past performance of a series of a Fund does not necessarily indicate how it will perform in the future.

- ⁽¹⁾ This information is derived from the Fund's Annual Audited Financial Statements. The net assets per unit presented in the financial statements might differ from the net asset value calculated for fund pricing purposes. The differences are explained in the notes to the financial statements.
- ⁽²⁾ Net assets and distributions are based on the actual number of units outstanding at the relevant time. The increase or decrease from operations is based on the average number of units outstanding over the accounting period.
- ⁽³⁾ Distributions were paid in cash or reinvested in additional units of the Fund, or both.
- ⁽⁴⁾ The net assets are calculated in accordance with IFRS.
- ⁽⁵⁾ This information is provided as at the last day of the accounting period shown.
- ⁽⁶⁾ Management expense ratio is based on total expenses including sales taxes for the accounting period indicated (excluding commission, other portfolio transaction costs and withholding taxes) and is expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net value during the accounting period.
- ⁽⁷⁾ The trading expense ratio represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net asset value during the accounting period. The trading expense ratio includes, if necessary, the trading expenses from its underlying funds, as described in Article 15.2 of Regulation 81-106.
- ⁽⁸⁾ The Fund's portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the Fund portfolio's manager manages its portfolio investments. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the accounting period. The higher a Fund's portfolio turnover rate in an accounting period, the greater the trading costs payable by the Fund in the accounting period, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the accounting period. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high turnover rate and the performance of a Fund.
